- 16.05 Records of disciplinary action shall be removed from an employee's file after eighteen (18) months of continuous service from the date of the disciplinary action, provided that no further related discipline has been imposed in that time. Discipline relating to a serious breach of Client policy or Military policy shall remain on the employee's file permanently, and shall not be subject to this provision.

ARTICLE 17 • RESTRICTION ON OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

- 18.01 The parties to this Collective Agreement recognize the desirability for the prompt resolution of complaints through the grievance process.
- 18.02 A grievance will be defined as any difference, dispute, or complaint arising from the interpretation, administration, application or alleged violation of this collective agreement.
- 18.03 A grievance will be submitted to the Employer within fifteen (15) working days of the event in question, or fifteen (15) working days from the time the employee or Union should reasonably have known of the occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based.
- 18.04 A grievance must be submitted in writing to the employer by the Union or employee representative and must clearly indicate that it is a grievance, the basis for the grievance and any redress requested.
- 18.05 The parties agree to follow each of the steps in the processing of the grievance; if at any step the Employer's representative fails to give his written answer within the time limit herein set forth, the Union or employee may transmit the grievance to the next level. If the employee fails to comply with the time limits set forth for their part of the grievance procedure, the grievance will be considered to have been abandoned. Notwithstanding the limitations set forth in this clause, either party may with the prior agreement of the other party, extend the time limits set out in the grievance procedure or skip a level, except for the second level.

- 18.06 Employee(s) shall have the right to be represented at any step of the grievance procedure. The Union shall be provided an opportunity to present evidence and make representations at each level of the grievance procedure.
- 18.07 An employee who has completed his/her probationary period and has been terminated from his/her employment, may submit a grievance, within fifteen (15) working days, after the employee ceases to work for the Company, directly to the second level of the grievance procedure.
- 18.08 The Employer and Union agree that rejection of a probationary employee is a different standard than would justify the dismissal of a non-probationary employee. The Employer will not exercise its discretion to reject an employee on probation in a manner which is arbitrary, discriminatory, or in bad faith. A probationary employee, who is terminated, may submit a grievance within fifteen (15) working days, after the employee ceases to work for the Company, directly to the second level of the grievance procedure.
- 18.09 The Employer shall designate a representative at each level of the grievance procedure and shall inform the Union in writing on an annual basis, or as required of the name and title of the person designated at each level. The Employer is only required to recognize those Union and Employee representatives who the Union has given written notice of to the Company.
- 18.10 The employee(s) shall be advised of their right to have a Union representative present at any step of the grievance procedure.

STEPS OF THE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

For the purposes of the Grievance Procedure, “working days” shall refer only to days during which the affected employee or group of employees is/are scheduled to work.

Prior to initially filing a grievance, the parties agree that the employee and/or the Union will attempt to resolve the matter with the employee’s direct supervisor or designate. Should these informal dispute resolution discussions take more than one (1) day, it is agreed that the grievance timelines shall be suspended for the duration of the discussions. The timelines will resume upon the declaration by either party that informal resolution will not be achieved.

STEP 1

The first level grievance shall be heard by the Operations Manager. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance transmittal, the Employer representative shall provide a written decision to the employee(s) and the Union representative.

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved under Step 1, then the employee(s) or Union representative may, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Employer's decision, transmit in writing, the grievance to the next level of the grievance process.

STEP 2

The second level grievance shall be heard by the District Manager. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance transmittal, the Employer representative shall provide a written decision to the employee(s) and Union representative.

ARBITRATION

The referral of a grievance to arbitration must be in writing and made within forty-five (45) calendar days of receipt of the Step 2 decision from the Employer.

A mutually agreed upon Arbitrator shall hear the grievance and will have all the powers contained in this Agreement and those contained in by relevant legislation, including but not limited to, the Saskatchewan Trade Union Act. The Arbitrator shall have no authority to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this agreement, nor alter, modify or amend any part of this agreement, nor add or subtract from this agreement, but shall base their decision on the contractual rights of the parties as disclosed by this agreement. In the case of discharge or discipline, the Arbitrator has the power to substitute such other penalties that the Arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances, including compensation for lost income and benefits.

The parties shall make every reasonable effort to agree on the selection of an Arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days from the date that written request for arbitration has been received by the other party. If the parties fail to agree on an Arbitrator, either party may request the Minister of Labour for Saskatchewan to make an appointment.

The Arbitrator shall hear the grievance as soon as possible and render a decision within a reasonable period of time. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.

Each party shall pay one half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

Matters referred to arbitration will have been carried through all previous levels of the grievance procedure, except in cases where the parties have agreed to skip a level, or where a grievance may be submitted directly to a higher level than the first. In the event of a dispute as to the carriage at previous levels, such matters shall be submitted to the Arbitrator as a preliminary matter to be determined.

ARTICLE 19 • STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

19.01 Each employee who is not required to work on any of the following days shall receive a normal days payment at this regular straight-time hourly rate for the celebration of the holidays listed hereunder, provided the employee works their complete shift on both the last and first scheduled day immediately before and after the holiday respectively:

19.03 Should any paid holiday occur during an employee's annual vacation, the employee has the option to extend their vacation by the number of statutory holidays occurring, or to use the statutory holiday in place of vacation days.

19.04 In no event will an employee who has been laid off for lack of work receive payment for any holiday which occurs during the period of layoff.

- 19.05 In no event will an employee who is absent without authorized leave on one or both of the qualifying days referred to in 19.01, receive pay for the holiday.
- 19.06 In no event will an employee required to work on a paid holiday who does not report for and perform the work as scheduled, receive pay for the holiday.
- 19.07 The Parties agree that other religious and culturally significant days may be substituted for any of the designated paid holidays in 19.01. Employees, who wish to substitute another holiday for one of the days listed above, must request the substitution in writing and in advance.
- 19.08 Where operational requirements permit, the Employer shall not schedule an employee to work both December 25 and January 1 in the same holiday season.
- 19.09 In calculating statutory holiday pay for casual employees, the Employer will pay each employee an amount equal to the number of hours worked in the last twenty-eight (28) days divided by twenty (20).

ARTICLE 20 • VACATION LEAVE WITH PAY

- 20.01 The vacation year shall be from July 1st to June 30th, inclusive.
- 20.02 Employee(s) shall accrue vacation pay and be entitled to annual vacation as follows:
- a) Less than ten (10) years of service, six (6) percent of gross earnings; an annual leave of three (3) weeks;
 - b) After ten (10) years of service up to and including the completing of fifteen (15) years of service, eight (8) percent of gross earnings; an annual leave of four (4) weeks;
 - c) After fifteen (15) years of service, ten (10) percent of gross earnings; an annual leave of five (5) weeks.
- 20.03 For the purpose of vacation leave, continuous employment is defined as all employment from the last date of hire with the Department of National Defense prior to June 12, 1998, Food Services and July 1, 1998, Housekeeping, as well as employment with the Employer.
- 20.04 Employees shall be entitled to annual vacation after six (6) months of employment.

20.05 Scheduling of Vacation Leave with Pay - the vacation year will commence July 1st in each year and will end on June 30th of the following year.

Employees shall submit their vacation requests in writing between April 1st to April 15th. On May 15th of each year the Company will post the approved vacation schedule. The Company will allocate vacation requests according to seniority and the operational needs. A copy of the confirmed vacation requests will be given to the employee.

Applications made after April 15th of each calendar year will be given preference on a "first-come, first-served basis", regardless of seniority. The Employer, within five (5) working days of receiving such notice, shall give the Employee written notice of approval, denial or cancellation of a request for vacation leave with pay.

The Employer will make every reasonable effort not to cancel a period of vacation leave with pay which has been previously approved in writing unless in case of an emergency. Where the Employer finds it necessary to restrict approved vacation leave with pay in whole or part, the Employee shall be entitled to take the leave at another time. Upon submission of documentary evidence, any non-recoverable financial commitments will be reimbursed to the Employee.

20.06 Displacement of Vacation Leave

Where in respect of any period of vacation leave, an Employee:

- a) is granted bereavement leave, or
- b) is hospitalized and is granted sick leave with pay;

the period of vacation leave with pay so displaced shall either be added to the vacation period, if requested by the Employee and approved by the Employer, or reinstated for use at a later date. The Employer reserves the right to request official documentation prior to reinstating the employee's vacation bank.

20.07 Employees shall receive vacation pay on regular pay days while on vacation unless otherwise requested.

20.08 Since vacations are allowed as a period of change and rest for the general good of the employees and the Company alike, continuous service without vacation but with extra compensation is not regarded as good for either the employee or the Company, and hence, no employee may elect to receive pay in lieu of vacation.
