

November 16, 2021 - Day One – UNDE 18th Triennial Convention

Today, was a historic moment for UNDE as they had their first hybrid Convention, which took place at the Westin Hotel in Ottawa as well as virtually for those wishing not to travel.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the UNDE 18th Triennial Convention was postponed from August 2020 when it was supposed to take place in St. John's, NL.

Delegates had their regional caucuses this morning followed by National President June Winger opening Convention after lunch with an indigenous blessing from UNDE Brother Greg Mansfield.

Former UNDE National President John MacLennan, who is the Chief Electoral Officer during Convention announced the Nominations Committee.

Invited guest Chris Aylward, PSAC National President, welcomed the delegates to Ottawa and thanked them for all their work throughout this mandate.

Committee Chairs were then brought up on the podium to start the business of the day going through the resolutions.
