The Workplace Harassment and Violence Prevention policy protects the rights of employees to work in an environment free from such harassment as defined under the Canadian Human Rights Act and confirms that harassment and violence will not be tolerated in the workplace. The Employer's guidelines confirm that retaliation against any individual for reporting harassment and/or violence, for providing testimony as a witness in an investigation or for assisting a principal party or a responding party in the resolution of a complaint, shall not be permitted or tolerated.

14.07 A full-time employee who is required to work on a designated holiday shall be paid their holiday pay if entitled as per Article 14.06 and one and one-half times (1½ x) their hourly rate for the first eight (8) hours worked by them on that day and two times (2 x) their hourly rate of pay for all hours worked thereafter.

14.08 When a full-time employee works on a holiday following a day of rest on which they also worked and received overtime in accordance with Article 14.07, they shall be paid in addition to the pay that they would have been granted had they not worked on the holiday, two times (2 x) their hourly rate of pay for all time worked.

14.09 Part-time employees shall be paid four and a quarter percent (4.25%) of their gross regular earnings as designated holiday pay every second pay period. If a part time employee works on a designated holiday, the employee will be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1½) their rate of pay for the hours worked on that day.

ARTICLE 15 – VACATION LEAVE

15.01 Full-time employees are entitled to and shall be granted a paid vacation at the normal rate of pay for the period involved. A full-time employee shall be entitled to apply for vacation leave on the basis of earned prorated vacation credits.

Upon written request, a part-time employee may be granted time off without pay for vacation purposes based on the vacation entitlement outlined below. For purposes of vacation scheduling, and in cases where operational requirements dictate, it is understood that full-time employees will have preference over part-time employees, unless part-time employees have already had their vacation approved.

Part time employees shall be paid their entitlement during each pay period. However, a part-time employee may elect to have their entitlement held by the Employer and paid out the amount accrued at that time, twice a year, as follows:

- (a) during the pay period that falls prior to their approved period of vacation leave of one (1) week or more of leave; the employee will be responsible to advise the local Human Resources Office at least fourteen (14) calendar days notice in writing when this payment should be paid; and
- (b) during the last pay in December.

The employee will be responsible to notify the local Human Resources Office of their election no later than December 1st of each calendar year for the next calendar year. If an employee fails to do so by the deadline, then their entitlement shall be paid out during each pay period.

In the 18 th to 26 th years	25 working days	10% of gross income
In the 27 th year	27 working days	11% of gross income
In the 28 th and subsequent years	30 working days	12% of gross income

15.02 On termination of employment or death, the employee or their estate is entitled to any vacation pay owed to them in respect to any prior completed year of employment and vacation pay for any portion of the year completed at the time of termination at their current wage.

15.03 Calculations shall be based on the anniversary date of employment of the employee.

15.04 Subject to operational requirements the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to schedule an employee's vacation at a time acceptable to them, based on seniority.

15.05 All requests for leave submitted by full-time employees must be submitted through WorkForce. All employees shall give the Employer at least fourteen (14) calendar days notice in writing regarding the actual dates on which they desire to take their vacation, if the period of vacation is in excess of five (5) days. An employee's leave for shorter periods may be granted based on operational considerations and provided sufficient notice is given.

15.06 Vacation leave shall not be cumulative from year to year under normal circumstances.

15.07 It is realized that occasionally vacations cannot be taken during the vacation period because of illness, job requirements or other exceptional circumstances. In such cases vacations may be carried over the next vacation period with the approval of the appropriate authorized manager. Applications for vacation carry-over shall be submitted in writing.

15.08 When any holiday as defined in Article 14.01 falls within the employee's paid vacation period the employee will be permitted to take one (1) extra day of vacation with pay consecutive with their vacation for each designated holiday.

15.09 Vacation will be granted on the basis of seniority in the outlet. A senior employee will not be able to displace the approved leave of an employee with less seniority in the outlet for the same vacation period.

15.10 Subject to operational requirements, the Employer may schedule the Saturday prior to the commencement of an employee's vacation period as the employee's Saturday off in that four (4) week period.

15.11 Where, in respect of any period of vacation leave with pay, an employee is granted sick leave on production of a medical certificate, the period of vacation leave with pay so displaced shall either be added to the vacation period if requested by the employee and approved by the Employer or reinstated for use at a later date.

15.12 Vacation is only earned while an employee is drawing pay except that authorized periods of leave without pay that do not exceed two (2) continuous weeks may be counted as time earning vacation.

15.13 An employee is entitled to be informed, upon request, of the balance of their vacation entitlement.

15.14 Notwithstanding the above provisions, an employee converting from part-time to full-time status may count their previous continuous part-time employment towards full-time vacation entitlement as follows:

- (a) Less than five (5) years of continuous part-time service – one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the previous service.
- (b) Five (5) or more years of continuous part-time service – all of the previous service.

- (b) For the purposes of this Article, qualifying prior Canadian Forces service shall be any period of former Canadian Forces service as either a member of the Regular Force or Reserve Force Class B or C that is at least six (6) continuous months in duration and during which time the employee was not earning vacation as an NPF employee. For greater certainty, prior, current or future Canadian Forces service earned during any period where the employee also earned or received vacation pay with/from the Employer does not count as qualifying prior Canadian Forces service.

- (c) In order to be eligible for the inclusion of qualifying prior Canadian Forces service credit in the calculation of their vacation entitlement, the employee must provide the Human Resources Office with an acceptable record of their qualifying prior Canadian Forces service. Acceptable records include confirmation of:
 - (i) Service as a contributor under the Canadian Forces Superannuation Act;
 - (ii) Service that has been elected as pensionable service under sub-paragraph 6.(1)(b)(iii)(C) of the Public Service Superannuation Act; or
 - (iii) Service as Reserve Force Class B or C for which (i) and (ii) do not apply but that can be validated to the satisfaction of the Employer.
- (d) For the purpose of including any qualifying prior Canadian Forces service in the calculation of the employee's vacation entitlement:
 - (i) Any employee who provides the acceptable record of their qualifying prior Canadian Forces service to the Employer will have any qualifying prior Canadian Forces service count from either, the first day of the vacation year in which the acceptable record was provided or their start date as a full-time/part-time employee, whichever occurs later.

An employee on leave will be notified in writing if such a change took place.

Any personal information related to a domestic violence case will be treated in a strictly confidential manner, in accordance with the relevant legislation, and shall not be disclosed to any other party without the employee's express written agreement. No information on domestic violence will be kept in an employee's personnel file without their express written agreement.

ARTICLE 17 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

17.01 The purpose of any grievance procedure is to maintain good relations between employees and management at all levels. The grievance procedure helps to do this by providing a method of resolving complaints quickly and fairly.

17.02 The grievance procedure provides an informal or oral complaint stage for employees. Managers are available for private consultations with an employee who wishes to discuss a complaint or grievance. Before a formal grievance is presented, the employee is encouraged to discuss it as an oral complaint with the manager concerned, either privately or, if required, in the presence of a representative of the Union. If the employee is not satisfied with the result of such discussions, a formal grievance may then be presented.

17.03 A three-level grievance procedure is provided to employees. The Employer will post on the bulletin boards, the names of the officials designated by the Employer to handle each of the three (3) levels of the Grievance Procedure. The Union is to be supplied with copies of said postings.

17.04 Subject to and as provided in section 206 of the Federal Public Sector Labour Relations Act as may be amended from time to time, an employee who feels that they have been treated unjustly or consider themselves aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer in matters other than those arising from the classification process is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in Article 17.09 except that,

- (a) where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament to deal with the specific complaint, such procedure must be followed; and
- (b) where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of the Collective Agreement or an arbitral award, the employee is not entitled to present the grievance unless they have the approval of and is represented by the Union.

17.05 An employee is not entitled to present a grievance relating to any action taken, direction or regulation given or made on behalf of the Government of Canada, respecting matters involving the safety and security of Canada.

17.06 An employee, when submitting a grievance at any level, shall use the NPF Grievance Presentation Form. However, a grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the NPF form or by reason of any technical irregularity. The form is obtainable from the NPF Human Resources Office.

17.07 The grievance process applies to employees only, but an employee has the right to be represented by a representative in the grievance procedure at any level and at either, or both, the informal discussion (oral complaint) stage, or when the formal written grievance is being considered.

17.08 At the request of an employee who has presented a grievance, a representative shall have the right to consult with the person designated to reply on management's behalf at any level in the grievance procedure. At levels other than the final level the request for consultation may be made orally.

17.09 An employee wishing to present a grievance shall do so:

- (a) at the first level of the grievance procedure where the grievance does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee; and
- (b) at the final level of the grievance procedure where the grievance relates to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee.

All levels in the grievance procedure, except the final level, may be by-passed with the mutual consent of the Employer or its delegate, the employee and, where applicable, a representative.

17.10 A grievance shall be presented by an employee:

- (a) where it does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twentieth (20th) day; and
- (b) where it relates to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twenty-fifth (25th) day; after the day on which the employee is notified orally in writing, or where the employee is not so notified, after the day on which the employee became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

17.11 When an employee is not willing to accept the response to a grievance submitted to the first or second level and wishes to submit the grievance to the final level, this must be done within ten (10) days after the date on which the response was conveyed to the employee in writing by the Employer.

17.12 When an employee does not receive a response to the grievance within fifteen (15) days, the employee is entitled to submit the grievance to the next higher level.

17.13 The Employer shall reply to an employee's grievance at the first or second level of the grievance process within fifteen (15) days after the grievance is presented, and within twenty-five (25) days where the grievance is presented at the final level.

17.14 The time limits stipulated in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer, the grievor and, where applicable, a representative.

17.15 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken in the grievance procedure, Saturdays, Sundays and designated holidays shall be excluded.

17.16 An employee may abandon a grievance at any stage in the process by written notice to the officer who is designated to receive and to reply on behalf of the Employer at Level One of the grievance process.

17.17 An employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance, unless in the opinion of the Employer or its delegate, it was not possible for the employee to comply with the prescribed time limits.

17.18 Where an employee has presented a grievance up to and including the final level with respect to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, suspension or a financial penalty, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the employee's satisfaction, they may refer the grievance to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Public Sector Labour Relations Act and Regulations, as may be amended from time to time.

17.19 When a grievance that may be presented by an employee to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application in respect of them of a provision of a Collective Agreement or an arbitral award, the employee is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the Union for the Bargaining Unit to which the Collective Agreement or arbitral award applies signifies in prescribed manner:

- (a) its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication; and
- (b) its willingness to represent the employee in the adjudication proceedings.

ARTICLE 18 – PAY ADMINISTRATION

18.01 An employee shall be paid for services rendered at a rate of pay specified in Appendix A for their job title in accordance with the time limits outlined in the rate of pay scale and in accordance with the following:

- (a) Employees accepting a position within the Bargaining Unit who have previous services with the Employer, in the same type of position (i.e. same job title), will be placed at the increment of the wage grid commensurate with their length of service with the Employer

- (b) Employees accepting a position within the Bargaining Unit who have previous, but discontinuous service, in the same type of position (i.e. the same job title), within five (5) years of the commencement date of their position within the Bargaining Unit will have fifty percent (50%) of that service credited towards their length of service for the purpose of placement on the wage grid.

- (a) When an employee is appointed in writing by the Employer to temporarily perform the duties of a higher classification in the Bargaining Unit, they shall be paid as if they have been appointed to that higher classification level for that period from the first (1st) day.
- (b) When an employee is appointed, in writing, by the Employer to temporarily perform the duties of an employee outside the Bargaining Unit, they shall be paid at their regular rate plus an additional twenty percent (20%) for that period from the first (1st) day.

18.03 An employee temporarily assigned by the Employer to a position with a rate of pay lower than their regular rate of pay shall maintain their regular rate of pay.

18.04 An employee shall not have their rate of pay reduced by reason of a change in the classification of their position that is caused other than by the employee themselves.

PAY NOTES

- A. Effective 1 July 2019 and subject to ratification by the Union and the Employer, the above pay grid shall be put into effect.

Employees actively on strength as of the date of ratification will be placed on the new pay grid at the applicable increment as follows:

- (i) Employees will be placed on the new pay grid based on their current length of service in their current position; i.e. an employee working in the same position for 24 months will be placed at the 24 month rate.
- (ii) Any employee whose rate of pay is above the top step increment will not have their current pay reduced but will retain their current rate of pay until the top step increment on the pay grid for their job level exceeds their rate of pay; at this point, the rate of pay for those employees will increase to the closest rate on the grid.

- B Effective 1 July 2020 and subject to ratification the above pay grid shall be put into effect.

- C. Effective 1 July 2021 and subject to ratification the above pay grid shall be put into effect.

Minimum Wage Adjustment

- D. In the event that the provincial minimum wage increases during the life of this Agreement, adjustments will be made to the grid according to the procedure specified below:

In the event that the provincial minimum wage increases during this period by a monetary amount that is greater than the monetary increase(s) applied to each of the hourly rates of pay during this period, those rates of pay will be increased by the difference, in cents, between the increases applied during this period and the increase to the provincial minimum wage. Such an increase shall take effect on the date of the increase to the provincial minimum wage. For example, if the start rate of pay band 1 gets a $0.10/hour increase on 1 July 2021, and the provincial minimum wage increases by $0.25/hour on 1 October 2021, on 1 October 2021 the start rate of pay band 1 will be increased by $0.15/hour.

This adjustment will not be made retroactively.

- E. Unless otherwise stipulated, the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall be effective on the date it is ratified by the Union and the Employer.
- F. The Agreement will expire on 30 June 2022

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #1

The Employer currently has no plans contemplating the closure of NPF outlets at CFB Kingston or the elimination of NPF positions in this Bargaining Unit by reason of contracting-out or reorganization. If, during the term of this Agreement, the Employer determines that such reorganization is necessary, and it results in the elimination of positions held by employees within the Bargaining Unit, the Employer shall meet with the Local Union representative in order to discuss options for the affected employees. The meeting shall take place as soon as possible prior to the positions being eliminated and, to the extent possible and subject to operational constraints, at least sixty (60) days prior to such elimination. This Agreement does not cancel any provision of Article 5 of the Collective Agreement.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2

- (d) While working in the substantive position, the employee shall be paid the rate of pay relating to their substantive position. While working in the second position, the employee shall be paid the rate of pay associated with the second position.
- (e) The compensation received while working in the second job will not be subject to Union dues, as applicable. However the hours and compensation from the second job will be excluded from the calculation of the employee's pensionable earnings or pensionable service, the determination of the employee's insured benefits (for e.g. Group Life Insurance or LTD coverage), and the determination of the employee's other benefits or entitlements (including but not limited to designated holiday pay, or the accrual of annual leave). Further, the hours worked in the second job will not be considered overtime hours and will be excluded from the calculation of the employee's weekly hours of work/normal hours of work and in the determination of the employee's entitlement to overtime pay. The employee is not entitled to take paid leave from the second position.
