ARTICLE 38

GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 38.01 The Employer and the PSAC agree that discussions should occur between employees, PSAC representatives and Employer representatives in an attempt to resolve problems or differences. This grievance and arbitration procedure is not intended to preclude any such discussions.
- 38.02 For the purpose of this Agreement the term "grievance" shall mean any dispute between the Employer and the PSAC ("policy grievance"), or between the Employer and any employee within the jurisdiction of the PSAC, concerning the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of this Agreement.
- 38.03 The time limits set out in the grievance and arbitration procedure are mandatory and not discretionary. In calculating time limits, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays shall be excluded.
In the event that the Employer does not respond to a grievance within the specified time limits, the PSAC, at its option, may either advance the grievance to the next step or await the Employer's response, in which case no time limit shall apply against the PSAC until it has received the Employer's response.
In the event that a grievance is not submitted or advanced from one step to another within the time limits specified, or as extended by agreement between the Employer and the PSAC in writing, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned.
- 38.04 Employee(s) shall have the right to be represented at any step of the grievance and arbitration procedure. The PSAC shall be given full opportunity to present evidence and make representations throughout the grievance and arbitration procedure.
- 38.05 The Employer shall designate a representative at each step of the grievance and arbitration procedure. Any step in the grievance procedure shall be waived if a person hearing the grievance is the subject of the complaint. If a step in the grievance and arbitration procedure is waived, no other step shall be waived except by mutual agreement.

STEPS OF THE GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

Complaint:

Any employee who has a dispute shall first discuss the matter with his or her Manager with a view to prompt settlement thereof. A complaint must be brought to the attention of the Manager as soon as practicable, to allow sufficient response time prior to the time limits required in Step One. The employee may have their PSAC representative present at such discussion.

As referenced in the applicable articles of this agreement, disputes relating to Release, Abandonment of Position, Termination, Discharge, Dismissal, Statement of Duties, Harassment or Abuse of Authority shall be filed at Step Two.

Policy grievances shall be signed by the PSAC or Local President, or designate, and shall be filed directly at Step Two.

Step One:

Within twenty (20) working days of the employee(s) becoming aware of the complaint, the complaint becomes a formal grievance if the employee and/or the PSAC present a written grievance form to Human Resources. Formal grievances must have the approval and support of the bargaining agent. The grievance form must specify the nature of the grievance, the provision(s) of the Collective Agreement violated, and the remedy requested.

Where an employee(s) commences a leave period during the twenty (20) working day period, calculation of the time in which the employee(s) has submitted the grievance has been suspended. Upon return to work, the employee(s) shall have the balance of the twenty working day period as calculated above, in which to submit the grievance.

The employer representative will arrange an acceptable hearing date within ten (10) working days of the formal submission. At this meeting the Grievor will be accompanied by an PSAC representative. The Employer Representative shall reply in writing to the Grievor within a further ten (10) working days.

Step Two:

If a satisfactory settlement has not been obtained under Step One, employee(s) and/or the PSAC representative may within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the Employer's decision under Step One, transmit the grievance to Step Two. The designated Employer representative will arrange a hearing within five (5) working days of the receipt of a Step Two grievance. The Employer Representative shall render a decision in writing within a further five (5) working days.

Arbitration:

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled under Step Two, then the grievance may be referred to arbitration, within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the time limits set out in Step Two.

The parties agree that a single arbitrator shall be used as provided for under the Canada Labour Code to be chosen from the list of arbitrators designated below. The Employer and the PSAC shall make every effort to agree on the selection of the arbitrator from the list within ten (10) working days after the party requesting arbitration has delivered written notice of submission of the dispute to arbitration.

LIST OF ARBITRATORS:

James Oakley
Wayne Thistle
Susan Ashley
John Clarke
Denis Browne

In the event that the parties fail to agree on the choice of arbitrator, the next arbitrator on the list will be selected in succession beginning with the arbitrator first listed and thereafter the one immediately following the last one selected or used.

The arbitrator shall have all the powers vested by the Canada Labour Code, including, in the case of discharge or discipline, the power to substitute for the discharge or discipline such other penalties that the arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances, including compensation for lost income and benefits. The arbitrator shall render a decision within a reasonable period.

The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on both parties.

Each party shall bear one-half (1/2) the cost of the arbitrator.

The arbitrator shall not change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Agreement.

Expedited Arbitration:

The Parties agree that, by mutual consent only, any grievance may be referred to the following expedited arbitration procedure. The arbitrator shall be chosen by mutual agreement between the parties. Any decision flowing from this procedure shall be without precedent and shall not be used or referred to in any subsequent arbitration whether under the normal procedure or this procedure.

Procedure:

- a) Grievances referred to expedited arbitration must be scheduled to be heard within forty-five (45) days from the date of referral, unless the hearing is delayed by mutual agreement between the parties or by the arbitrator's own motion or upon the petition of one of the parties;
- b) the parties shall make every reasonable attempt to proceed by admission and minimize the use of witnesses;
- c) whenever possible, the arbitrator shall deliver the decision orally at the conclusion of the hearing, giving a brief resume of the reasons for the decision and then confirm these conclusions in writing within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing;
- d) when it is not possible to give an oral decision at the conclusion of the hearing, the arbitrator shall render it in writing with a brief resume of the reasons. The arbitrator must render the written decision as soon as possible but at all times within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing;
- e) the decision of the arbitrator shall not constitute a precedent;
- f) such decisions may not be used to alter, modify or amend any part of the Collective Agreement, nor should any decision be incompatible with the provisions of the Collective Agreement; and
- g) such decisions from the expedited format shall be final and binding upon the parties in respect only of the specific matter arbitrated.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed as guaranteeing minimum or maximum hours of work.

- c) When establishing schedules of work the Employer shall consider the wishes of the majority of the employees concerned.
- d) The Employer will make every reasonable effort:
 - i. not to schedule the commencement of a shift within eight (8) hours of the completion of the employee's previous shift;

 - iii. to schedule at least two (2) consecutive days of rest at a time. Such two (2) consecutive days of rest may be separated by a designated paid holiday.
- e) Except as provided in 40.04 for Fire Operations employees, schedules of work shall be posted by the Employer at least fifteen (15) calendar days in advance of the starting date of the new schedule. The Employer shall arrange schedules that will remain in effect for periods of not less than twenty-eight (28) calendar days.
- f) When an employee's scheduled shift does not commence and end on the same day, such shift shall be considered for all purposes to have been entirely worked on the day it commenced.
- g) The Employer will provide two (2) rest periods of ten (10) minutes each per full working day. However, if due to operational requirements the Employer does not permit an employee to take a rest break the employee will be given equivalent time off with pay. An employee may be required to take such rest periods at the employee's work location when the nature of the employee's duties make it necessary.

40.03 Changes to Schedules of Work

- a) The Employer agrees there will be meaningful and constructive consultation with the local PSAC representative(s) respecting any change in hours of work that the Employer proposes to institute, when such change will affect the majority of the employees governed by the schedule. In all cases following such reviews, the Employer will, where practical, accommodate such employee representations as may have been conveyed by the PSAC representative(s) during the meeting or within three (3) working days. This provision in 40.03 a) does not apply to circumstances when the employer changes an individual's shift, or, scheduled hours of work within the posted schedule of work.
- b) By mutual agreement, in writing, the Employer and the local PSAC representative(s) may waive the application of clause 40.02 (e).
- c) Provided sufficient advance notice is given and with the approval of the Employer, employees may exchange shifts if there is no increase in cost to the Employer.
- d) An employee whose scheduled hours of work are changed without five (5) calendar days prior notice in advance of the starting time of the change:
 - i) shall be compensated at the rate of time and one half (1 1/2) for the first full shift worked on the new schedule. Subsequent shifts worked in the new schedule shall be paid for at straight time, subject to the overtime provisions of this Agreement.
 - ii) shall retain their previously scheduled days of rest immediately following the change, or, if worked, such days of rest shall be compensated in accordance with overtime provisions of this Article.

40.04 The provisions of 40.04 apply only to individuals within the Fire Operations Group:

- a) When hours of work are scheduled for employees, they shall be scheduled so that employees work an average of forty-two (42) hours per week over the life of their schedule.
- b) An employee's scheduled hours of work shall not be construed as guaranteeing the employee minimum or maximum hours of work.
- c) A shift schedule shall be posted in the Firehall at the beginning of each fiscal year.
- d) The Employer agrees that no shift schedule shall provide for split shifts.

- e)
 - i. The Employer shall post a duty roster in the Fire Hall eight (8) days in advance. If, as a result of a change in a duty roster, an employee is transferred to another platoon on less than ninety-six (96) hours' notice in advance of the starting time of the first shift of the employee's new platoon, the employee shall be paid at the rate of time and a half ($1 \frac{1}{2}$) for the first shift worked in the schedule of the employee's new platoon. Subsequent shifts worked on the schedule of the employee's new platoon shall be paid for at the employee's hourly rate of pay.
 - ii. Sub-clause (i) shall not apply to an employee when the employee is returned to the employee's regular platoon following a temporary assignment to a new platoon.
- f) Provided a minimum of 24 hours' notice is given before the shift is to be worked and 24 hours is given before the shift is to be worked back, and with the approval of the Employer, employees may exchange shifts if there is no additional cost to the Employer. The employee requesting the shift exchange will have three (3) months to pay back the shift. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

- d) overtime shall normally be compensated in cash. At the Employee's request overtime shall be compensated by leave with pay. The duration of such leave shall be equal to the overtime worked multiplied by the applicable overtime rate. Payment of such leave shall be at the employee's straight-time rate of pay in effect on the date immediately prior to the day on which the leave is taken.
- e) the Employer shall grant compensatory leave at times convenient to both the employee and the Employer;

Concerning Employees with Watch Standing Requirements

Whereas both parties are desirous of enhancing Labor/Management cooperation and achieving fairness to those employees that have watch-keeping requirements, Serco agrees to the following:

That any employees who are unable to take advantage of a reduction to minimum staffing levels, for reasons other than weather, will be allowed to bank the equivalent amount of hours at regular time, and will be permitted to schedule these hours at a time that is mutually agreeable with Management. Of those job titles specified in the list, where the employer can permit a reduction in the regular complement on a stand down under this MOU, the employer will (a) specify the number of employees in that job title who must remain for that shift, and (b) subject to operational needs, allocate participation in the stand downs equitably amongst the employees in the job title.

Concerning Working Alone Outside Normal Working Hours

The Employer acknowledges a health and safety concern raised in Collective Bargaining by the Union regarding employees working alone outside normal working hours.

The Employer agrees that, as part of routine job safety analysis, the Employer and the Occupational Health & Safety Committees will meet to determine if an employee is at greater risk when they work alone. This would include identifying the potential severity (risk factor) by analyzing;

- the nature of the risk;
- the potential frequency of the risk occurring; and,
- the potential consequence of the occurrence.

It will be decided whether the risk is inherent in the job, what degree of risk is acceptable when employees are working alone, and whether additional safety measures must be implemented.

Where an employee on standby is called in to perform work in a designated area, and until such time as any additional safety measures are identified and implemented, the Employer will arrange for him/her to be accompanied.

For the purposes of this MOU, a designated area means:

- PTA
- Dome Mountain
- German Camp
- Bunker Area
- Spring Gulch
- Lower Level (tank farm)
- Dakota firing range
- Mosquito Range
- any area requiring transportation by snowmobile

Concerning Developmental Positions

Both parties agree that circumstances may arise where recruiting in the HVGB area can create difficulties in staffing vacant or new positions.

In cases where Serco has attempted to fill vacant or new positions and cannot find qualified and suitable individuals, the parties agree to engage in discussions on the creation of temporary developmental positions to fill an immediate staffing need.

A developmental position is designed to provide an opportunity for existing or new employees to work in a position until such time as they are able to acquire the necessary skills or qualifications to fill the permanent vacancy. The rate of pay for a developmental position shall be based on, but less than, the collective agreement rate for the vacant position. The precise rate of pay must be agreed upon by both parties prior to staffing the developmental position.

In every case, the conditions of development shall be identified and agreed upon by both parties, and the applicant shall be given a reasonable opportunity to acquire the necessary skills and/or qualifications to perform all of the duties of the position on a permanent basis. Once the applicant has fulfilled all of the conditions of development, he/she shall be offered the position at full pay (entry level) on a permanent basis.

Where an applicant is unable to complete the conditions of development within a reasonable amount of time and the employer is able to demonstrate that they have provided the individual with reasonable opportunity to do so, the employer may re-post the vacant position. Should no suitable candidate be found, the employer may once again approach the Union to establish a new developmental position with a fresh applicant.

Any dispute arising from this Memorandum of Understanding shall be subject to the grievance procedure of the Collective Agreement.
