Background information: The NCR is unique in that it spans two provinces—Ontario and Quebec—each with distinct labour structures.

At the 2025 National Executive meeting, and following clarification from the PSAC National Executive, the following decision was confirmed:

- UNDE will cover the cost for one delegate per local to attend one Federation of Labour.
- Each NCR local must choose which Federation of Labour they wish to affiliate with for this purpose.

To be clear:

- This does not prevent locals from affiliating with more than one Federation of Labour.
- However, if a local chooses to affiliate with more than one, any costs associated with the second affiliation will be the responsibility of the local.

If your local decides to affiliate with more than one Federation, this must be:

- Voted on by the membership, and
- Reflected in your bylaws through an amendment for future consistency.
